

The SES PTA Reflections Program for 2011/2012 is now complete. I hope that everyone had a chance to see the entries on display. We had a wonderful set of entries! Congratulations to all and thanks to all our student artists for participating!

Thank you to our wonderful volunteers, to the staff at SES, and to Mr. Stone for all their help and support! Thank you also to the Somers Public Library for the use of their facility and for their assistance. And finally, thank you so much to our wonderful judges: Local artist Matt Becker, and the members of Mrs. Curran's Honors Art Class at the Somers High School!! The judges really had their work cut out for them! But, they have completed their judging, and the results are as follows:
